Can Moti Shahi Mahal be in protected list?, Ahmedabad

The high court on Friday asked the Centre and the state government to check whether the 400-year-old Moti Shahi Mahal, constructed by Mughal emperor Shah Jahan, can be included in the list of protected monuments. Acting on a public interest litigation (PIL) filed by Umang Hutheesing, the bench of justice Akil Kureshi and justice JB Pardiwala said although the structure is not notified by the state, or the Centre, it would be unfortunate if it loses its characteristics and is converted into an ordinary structure. Times of India, September 20, 2014

Gujarat HC wants Shahibaug palace relisted as ASI monument, Ahmedabad

Suggesting that the 400-year-old Shah Jahan-built palace in Shahibaug be relisted as an Archaeological Survey of India-protected monument, the Gujarat high court on Friday directed the state government and the Centre to inform it about the process of re-notifying the monument. The palace has been converted into a Sardar Patel memorial and subjected to renovation with scant regard for heritage preservation. Times of India, September 20, 2014
