Model Code casts shadow on World Heritage Week celebrations

The civic body is taking steps on how to ensure that the week-long World Heritage Week celebration is a memorable one in wake of the Model Code of Conduct.

The Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation is all geared up to celebrate the World Heritage Week from November 19, the first after it was declared as the first World Heritage City of India by the UNESCO on July 8.

However, AMC which had to shelve its plan to observe fortnight-long celebration beginning August 1 to showcase its achievement, in the wake of heavy rains and subsequent widespread floods across the state does n want to take any chances this time.

The civic body is taking steps on how to ensure that the week-long World Heritage Week celebration is a memorable one in the wake of the Model Code of Conduct that is in force in Gujarat ahead of the Assembly election in December.

"With MICA, we are organising seven-day long celebration. There will an exhibition of some of the city's iconic monuments at the campus with ou experts. We are exploring several other things keeping in mind the Mode Code of Conduct," said Municipal Commissioner Mukesh Kumar.

"Talks are underway with many other educational institutes to engage them in celebration. There are plans to erect several hoardings and banners for the celebration sharing information about monuments but, it..."
